

30 years peaceful revolution: From the peptide to treatment

Thursday November 14th to Friday November 15th 2019, Leipzig, Germany

Thursday November 14th 2019*:

09:00-09:15	Welcome R. Henschler and C. Lehmann, Leipzig
09:15-09:30	Why 30 years? I. Doxiadis, Leipzig
09:30-10:00	The past the present and the future W. Mayr, Vienna
10:00-10:30	Antibody isotype and their influence in kidney transplantation M.L. Arnold, Erlangen
10:30-11:00	Coffee-Break
11:00-11:30	Influence of HLA antigens during treatment with methothrexate B. Vidan Jeras, Ljubljana
11:30-12:00	The role of epitopes in organ transplantation N. Lachmann, Berlin
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-13:30	The role of minors in transplantation E. Spierings, Utrecht
13:30-14:00	Minors (peptides) and cancer treatment G. Wichmann, Leipzig
14:30-15:00	Coffee-Break
15:00-17.15	workshops (BmT, Pirche AG, NN)
20:00	Welcome reception / Dinner

Friday November 15th 2019*:

09:00-09:30	Immunology of pregnancy F. Claas, Leiden
09:30-10:00	Transplant Engineering R. Blasczyk, Hannover
10:30-11:00	Coffee-Break
11:00-11:30	Solid organ transplantation 30 years later in Czechia A. Slavcev, Prague
11:30-12:00	From Intertransplant to Eurotransplant C. Schönemann, Berlin
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-15:15	workshops (BAG, GenDx, omixon)
15:15-15:25	Closure I. Doxiadis, Leipzig

organizers: C. Lehmann, R. Landgraf, R. Henschler
in charge: I. Doxiadis

*subject to change